Lord Abbett Short Duration Income Fund - Class I AUD Distributing - ISIN: IE000B79VXZ7
a Class of a sub-fund of Lord Abbett Global Funds I plc (the "Company")
The Company is managed by Lord Abbett (Ireland) Ltd. (the "Manager")

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund's investment objective is to seek a high level of income consistent with preservation of capital.

The Fund pursues its investment objective primarily by investing in short term debt securities. At least 65% of its assets are held in investment grade debt securities, including corporate debt of U.S. issuers and U.S. Dollar denominated securities of non-U.S. issuers, mortgage-backed, other asset backed securities, securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. government (including its agencies and government-sponsored enterprises) and inflation-linked investments (typically, bonds whose principal is adjusted for inflation). The Fund invests substantially in residential and commercial mortgage-backed and mortgage-related securities. In addition, the Fund's investments in high yield ("High Yield") securities (which are below investment grade and commonly referred to as "junk bonds") and lower rated commercial mortgage-backed securities comprise a significant portion of the Fund's portfolio.

The Fund may invest up to 35% of its assets in any one or a combination of the following: High Yield securities, non-U.S. (including emerging market) debt securities that are denominated in non-U.S. currencies, convertible securities (fixed income or equity securities that can be converted into a specified amount of another type of security), and collateralised debt obligations (structured products that pool together assets such as mortgages, bonds, and loans and repackage these asset pools into discrete portions that can be sold to investors). The Fund expects to maintain its average duration range between one and three years in order to seek to manage interest rate risk in the portfolio.

The Fund may invest up to 10% of its assets in third party floating or adjustable rate senior loans. Total assets in any one industry, other than mortgage related securities or those issued by the U.S. government, its agencies or instrumentalities, will not exceed 25% of assets.

The Fund employs a relative value-oriented investment process that emphasizes securities believed to be undervalued.

The Fund may invest in financial derivative instruments ("FDIs"), which are two-party contracts whose values depend on the rise and fall of an underlying reference asset or index. The Fund may use FDIs to seek to enhance returns, to attempt to hedge some of its investment risk, to manage portfolio duration, or as a substitute for holding the underlying reference asset on which the FDI is based. Leverage of up to 100% of assets may be obtained using FDIs.

Any income less expenses realised will only be distributed to investors in distributing classes and will be accumulated in the net asset value per share for accumulation classes.

The Fund is actively managed. It uses the ICE BofA Merrill Lynch 1-3 Year U.S. Corporate Index AUD as a 'comparator benchmark' to compare performance of the Fund against, but which is not used to constrain portfolio composition or as a target for the performance of the Fund.

Investors can redeem shares each day (except Saturdays, Sundays, and normal bank holidays) on which banks in Dublin and New York are open for regular business.

For full investment objective and policy details, please refer to the "Investment Objective" and "Investment Policies" sections of the Fund's supplement.

Recommendation: This Fund may be appropriate as a long term investment option.

Risk and Reward Profile

The Fund is in category 3, as it invests substantially in debt instruments of investment grade, but also may invest up to 35% in High Yield securities, which may result in higher levels of price fluctuation than if it invested in only investment grade debt securities.

The risk indicator was calculated using simulated data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.

In pursuing its investment objective the Fund will be exposed to additional risks including without limitation:

Reliance on Management Risk: the success of the Fund will depend on the ability of the Investment Manager to identify suitable investments and to dispose of such investments at a profit.

Issuer Risk: the issuer of a security may fail to pay interest or principal on time, or negative market perceptions of an issuer's ability to make such payments could cause the security to decline in value, causing a financial loss to the Fund.

Credit Risk: the failure of a counterparty or an issuer of a financial asset held within the Fund to meet its payment obligations will have a negative impact on the Fund.

High Yield Risk: High Yield securities typically pay a higher level of income but generally involve greater credit risk and sensitivity to economic developments than investment grade debt securities.

Liquidity Risk: there may be insufficient buyers or sellers to allow the Fund to buy or sell certain types of securities readily.

Interest Rate Risk: when interest rates rise, bond prices may fall, reflecting the ability of investors to obtain a more attractive rate of interest on their money elsewhere.

Mortgage and Asset-Backed Securities Risk: impairment of the value of underlying assets of mortgage-backed securities may result in a reduction in the value of the security and a financial loss to the Fund.

Non-U.S. Risk: investment in non-U.S. markets including emerging markets may expose the Fund to more social, political, regulatory and currency risks than securities in developed markets.

Currency Risk: changes in exchange rates may reduce or increase the returns an investor might expect to receive independent of performance.

FDI Risk: the use of FDIs may create leverage, leading to greater fluctuations in assets as well as potentially resulting in gains or losses that are greater than the amount originally invested in FDI.

Counterparty Risk: a party with whom the Fund contracts for securities or to safekeep the Fund's assets may fail to meet its obligations or become bankrupt, which may expose the Fund to a financial loss.

Share Currency Designation Risk: the performance of any unhedged classes may be affected by changes in the exchange rates between the currency denomination of any non-USD denominated unhedged class and the USD, the currency in which the Fund is denominated, as the Investment Manager will not purchase financial instruments to mitigate any such exchange rate fluctuations.

For more information on risks please refer to the "Investment Risks and Special Considerations" section of the Company's prospectus.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

One-off charges taken before or after you invest:

Entry charge	None
Exit charge	None

This is the maximum that might be taken out of your money before it is invested or the proceeds of your investment are paid out.

Charges taken from the fund over a year:

Ongoing charge	0.53%
----------------	-------

Charges taken from the fund under certain specific conditions:

Performance fee	None

The entry and exit charges shown are the maximum charges you may pay. In some cases you may pay less – you can find this out from your financial advisor.

The ongoing charges figure, which is based on an estimate due to the fact that the fund is newly established, is subject to a commitment by the Manager to limit ongoing charges of the share class to the expense limitation. This commitment may be lifted at any time upon prior notice to shareholders. The ongoing charges exclude portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/exit charge paid by the Fund when buying or selling units in another collective investment undertaking. This figure may vary from year to year. The exact charges will be included in the financial statements for each year.

For more information about fees and expenses, please see the section titled "Fees and Expenses" of the Company's prospectus and the Supplement prepared for the Fund available from the Manager at www.passportportfolios.com.
