Objectives

The share class' objective is to outperform the Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Total Return Index Value, hedged into EUR (the "Benchmark index"). The Benchmark index is a flagship measure of global investment grade debt from twenty-four local currency markets. The share class is hedged against the currency risk between its currency and the currency of the Sub-Fund.

To achieve that objective, the Sub-Fund invests directly or indirectly (through collective investment schemes or the use of financial derivatives) in a diversified portfolio of debt securities world-wide (including fixed rate, floating rate, variable rate notes, convertible bonds and mortgage backed securities) issued by various types of issuers including government or corporates which are listed or traded on one or more stock markets, as well as investments in currency markets.

The Sub-Fund does not aim to replicate the Benchmark and may, therefore, significantly deviate from it. Debt securities may be rated investment grade or below investment grade.

The Sub-Fund may also hold substantial amounts in cash or ancillary liquid assets (including short term money market instruments and cash deposits), depending on prevailing market conditions.

The Sub-Fund is actively managed. Its management objective is based upon the Benchmark index. However, if the Sub-Fund may invest in instruments included in the index, its strategies and holdings are in no way constrained by this market indicator. Investment decisions are based on a combination of "top-down" analysis (consideration of economic Sub-Fundamentals and market sentiment) and a "bottom up" analysis (which is focused on credit analysis based on factors such as competitiveness, cash flows and expected level of growth). The Sub-Fund may utilise financial derivative instruments such as futures, options, swaps, forwards and credit derivatives, which may be traded on one or more stock markets or may be negotiated directly with financial institutions. The Sub-Fund may hold currencies for investment purposes or in order to hedge the Sub-Fund's exposure to currencies. No more than 10% of the net assets of the Sub-Fund may be invested in collective investment schemes.

You may request the sale of your product on a daily basis. Dividends are not intended to be distributed. Any income derived from the product is reinvested.

Intended retail investor: The product is aimed at investors (i) with basic knowledge of and limited to no experience in investing in this type of product, (ii) willing to accept a substantial risk of loss of their investment and (iii) with the objective of increasing their capital during at least the recommended holding period.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

← Lower Risk Higher Risk →

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 3 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This classification rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level, and poor market conditions are unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

Be aware of currency risk. The currency of this product may be different from that of your country. As you may receive payments in the currency of this product and not that of your country, the final return you will get will depend on the exchange rate between these two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

Other risks materially relevant to the product not included in the summary risk indicator: performances of this product might be negatively impacted by liquidity risk, credit risk, financial derivatives instruments risk and counterparty risk.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Performance scenarios

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product and a suitable benchmark over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.
